Pathways programme 2019

Over the coming weeks, our S2-S5 pupils will be making their course choices for next session. In order to best support our young people in making these choices we have put together a comprehensive support programme which includes a number of parent information sessions and the launch of a new online resource including course information materials and case studies.

Key dates

- S3 Parents evening - 7th March 2019. 5-7pm
- S2 and S3 course choice parent information session - 14th March 2019. 7-8.30pm
- S2 course choice forms due (return to Head of House)- 19th March 2019
- S3 course choice day - 20th March 2019 - All day
- S4 and S5 course choice parent information session - 21st March 2019. 7-8.30pm
- S4 course choice day - 27th March 2019 - All day
- S5 course choice day - 3rd April 2019 - All day

Number of subjects

- S2 pupils moving into S3 will have 3 compulsory subjects (English, Maths & Languages) and 7 'free choice' subjects.
- S3 pupils moving into S4 will have 2 compulsory subjects (English & Maths) and 5 'free choice' subjects.
- S4 pupils moving into S5 will have 5 'free choice' subjects
- S5 pupils moving into S6 will select up to 4 'free choice' subjects.

Study Leave arrangements for S4-6 pupils

You will soon receive a letter outlining the study leave arrangements for all young people doing exams in May.

- S4 and S5 pupils will begin study leave on Thursday 25th April (Higher PE and Admin pupils will begin study leave on the 23rd April)
- S6 pupils will begin study leave on the 5th April. If they wish they can attend school on the 23rd and 24th April.
- A study immersion programme will run throughout May with full day study sessions prior to every exam. The immersion timetable will be available mid March.
- All S4 pupils will receive a personalised study timetable mid March. Pupils will receive 2 days study leave for every National 5 exam they are sitting.
- The full exam diet can be accessed at https://www.sqa.org.uk/files_ccc/ExamTimetable2019.pdf

Study support & Easter school arrangements

We are in the process of arranging the next block of study support. More details will be issued to pupils this week and a full timetable will be available on our website.

Easter school will run from the 8th - 17th April and a full timetable will be available soon. More information will be posted on snippets over the coming weeks so please keep checking our website or follow us on facebook or twitter.

Fr Simon says...

Isn't it great to see dawn happening a little earlier in the morning, and sunset a little later? Plants are starting to wake up too in our gardens. Life is returning! Soon it will be Lent and time for us too to join in the great wake-up to prepare for Easter. As Paul wrote -
"Wake up, sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you!"

Parent Council

The latest parent council meeting minutes are attached to this week's snippets. Our next meeting is on Monday evening from 7pm in the school. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Readathon 2019

St. Margaret's Readathon 2019

Calling all bookworms! The sponsored library Readathon is back again this year for another fun 12 hours of reading and book-related activities!

Date: Friday 8th March 8:35-20:00

Sponsorship and EE2 forms available from Ms Renfrew (English), Ms MacDonald (Drama), or the library desk.

Remember to:

- Bring a packed lunch (pizza will be provided for dinner!)
- Dress down as your favourite book character!

Everyone welcome to come along and participate - even if you can only manage an hour in the evening. Younger children welcome to attend. Refreshments available throughout the day with Pizza in the evening.

Modern Languages career talk

On Wednesday this week, a tutor from the Interpreting Section of Heriot Watt University, accompanied by two students in their final year, came to deliver a talk on the importance of Modern Languages in our society to our pupils learning a language and those thinking about taking one again soon.

Here are comments from some of our pupils:

"During the Modern Languages talk, I learnt that studying a language can lead to a career in more than interpreting, teaching and translating. It has opened my mind into taking Higher or Advanced Higher if I do well in my National 5. It has also opened my options into what I would take in University. French is now an option for me as I could take my French as far as working in the EU or it could help me get a job in the UK. This talk has helped and taught me more about where a language could take me." Rachel Jaconelli, S2.

"We found the course information useful. It was good to find out about job opportunities using languages. The examples of former students' jobs were interesting. Aiden's interpreting at the football press conference was cool." Alejandro Uddin, Luis Alcalá, Michael Clark, Thomas Dryden and Ethan Wynne, S4.

Gymnastics success

A huge well done to our Gymnastics team who placed overall 3rd in West Lothian. Our Level 2 team placed Silver (with Elle Ryan placing 1st overall in WL and Nia Murphy placing 3rd individually). Our level 3 team placed 2nd overall (with John Traynor placing bronze individually). Finally, our level 4 team placed bronze overall (with Unnam Chaudry placing bronze individually). Our silver medalists have now qualified and will compete at the Scottish Schools Competition held in Perth on 3rd March.

Hot off the press!

A huge well done to our girls S1-3 basketball team who went on to win the West Lothian basketball finals on Thursday night. The girls played extremely well to win the championship. We'll have more on this story in next week's snippets.

SUNDAY 24 FEBRUARY 2019

Seventh Sunday of the Year - Year C

Love within one's group or fellowship is a natural and universal human trait. What makes the disciples of Christ different from other people is their ability to love those outside their own group or fellowship, and even their enemies.

Jesus goes on to stress the obligations of fraternal charity. His disciples are to imitate the kindness and compassion of God. He asks them to be compassionate, forgiving and generous towards one another and assures them that whatever they give to others will be given back to them with interest.

GOD

Taking a risk with the fact that everyone in the UK is sick and tired of hearing this 'B-word, I've decided to give you my personal resume of the article I read: "As Brexit nears, Church leaders have concerns about future" written by C Collins on 1 February and available online at cruxnow.com

The Catholic Church has been cautious about commenting on the country potentially crashing out of the European Union.(...) Church leaders don't want to be seen as interfering in a political question, especially since Brexit has divided Catholics as much as the rest of the country. Although Britain as a whole supported Brexit in the referendum, both Scotland and Northern Ireland voted Remain.

If you were to poll the country's bishops, the vast majority would probably tell you they think leaving the EU is a bad idea (an opinion which would also be held at the Vatican, which has supported the European Union from the beginning), but they are keeping their cards close to the vest in their official statements about Brexit. However, as the date of Brexit gets closer, Church leaders have been highlighting some concerns about the process.

1) The Church wants the UK to stay engaged in Europe. Even though Britain might be leaving the European Union, it still remains a member of the Council of Europe, the Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe; and NATO.

2) The bishops have been vocal about protecting the rights of EU citizens currently living in the UK. EU citizens can move, live, and work freely in all EU countries, and there are an estimated 3.7 million Europeans in the UK. About one million are from Poland, and a significant portion of the rest come from other Catholic-majority countries such as Spain, Italy, and France. (...) The bishops have also complained about the increase of hate crimes in the country since the referendum. Xenophobic comments and even physical attacks have been reported against EU nationals living in the UK, especially those from Eastern Europe.

3) The Church, especially in Northern Ireland, has been fearful about what effect Brexit will have on the Good Friday Agreement which ended the "Troubles" in Ireland. One of the key components of the Good Friday agreement was an open border between north and south. This was summarised by Archbishop Eamon Martin "I would ask this question: We are only seven or eight weeks from the proposed date of exit. I wonder are we really thinking enough about the impact on people on the ground?" Martin asked. "This is a time for us to talk with each other and not to talk at each other about Brexit," he added. (Whole article: <https://cruxnow.com/news-analysis/2019/02/01/as-brexit-nears-church-leaders-have-concerns-about-future/>)

My final comment ... after Brexit, one thing will be certain for us Catholics of different nations and languages ... "not one iota, not one line will change in the Bible." We have to repeat after St John the shortest definition of God and practice it even better after Brexit ... God is love. The one who remains in love remains in God and God abides in him... Amen!

Fr. Peter

Tak jak wędkarz wybiera najlepsze miejsce i czas dla udanego połowu, tak samo czyni Bóg, powołując wspólnotę. Nie ma przypadku w wyborze miejsca i czasu jej powstania. Różne są miasta, parafie i różni są ludzie tworzący poszczególne wspólnoty. Zaproszenie przez Boga do grupy modlitewnej to nic innego jak przejaw jego troski o Ciebie. W chwilach, gdy sam nie dajesz rady chodzić za Jezusem, masz innych wokół siebie, którzy będą Cię wspierać.

Ty jesteś wybrany i obdarowany dla innych, inni są wybrani i obdarowani dla Ciebie.

Przypominamy że na terenie naszych parafii działają dwie wspólnoty: Grupa Mężczyzn Świętego Józefa, która spotyka się w drugie czwartki miesiąca w Kościele St Peters o godzinie 19.30 oraz Grupa Kobiet która spotyka się w trzecie czwartki miesiąca w Kościele St Peters o godzinie 18.30. Serdecznie zapraszamy.

Edynburska Grupa Kobiet Tota Tua, z wielką radością pragnie zaprosić na kolejne Rekolekcje dla kobiet, które odbędą się w dniach od 10 do 12 maja 2019 w Kościele św. Dawida w Dalkeith. Temat tegorocznych Rekolekcji to: „Pocieszyc Boga...”

Rekolekcje będzie prowadził Ojciec Michał Dragan wraz z siostrami Agnieszką Plasto i Aleksandrą Czapor ze Zgromadzenia Sióstr Maryi Niepokalanej.

Koszt rekolekcji z wyżywieniem to £50. Szczegolowe informacje znajdują się na tablicy informacyjnej lub bezpośrednio u organizatorek: Paulina 07706 952 360; meetjesusedinburgh@gmail.com Zapisy trwają do 31 marca 2019. Magda Rozmysłowska
