

WRITING (S1) – ACTIVITY IDEAS

Create your own comic

50 Word Fiction Challenge

Write your own role-playing computer game

Ideal for your first game

Create your game by dragging and dropping items into your world. It is ideal for hobby games, personal projects, school assignments, etc.

Plus, it's a free rpg maker, so there is nothing stopping you from using it.

Write your story

Create fantasy worlds and tell stories. Focus on the plot, atmosphere and player choices.

No coding required!

Nice community

Multiple games are shared every day. Some games are small, some are big, some are finished, some are still in development. Decide if and when you want to share your game, and let others experience your world and story.

Come chat with us on Discord, or hang out at our forum.

Write Letters/Emails - to family members

Write yourself – be a role model (keep a journal or start a Blog?)

Consider alternative methods –

- ~ Dictate Tool in Word
- ~ Transcribe audio file into Word
